Experience Ullswater more

We invite you to peel back the many layers of our beautiful valley and engage more deeply on your next visit with our people, our places and our paths created to benefit both locals and residents. Take a sustainable approach to your holiday, catch the train to Penrith then walk the Eamont Way to Pooley Bridge - your northern Ullswater holiday hub. From there, discover the valley via a network of foot and cycle paths, by 'Steamer' or by 'Hopper Bus'.

New to the fells? Try a National Park guided ranger walk - all ages and abilities welcome!

(they also do Wagyu steaks and eggs!) to Gowbarrow Hall Farm meat boxes - try them on holiday then order for delivery once back home!

Get closer to nature with guided walks and community

Understand the cycle of the seasons and how we live with, and on, the land - take a farm visit with Miller Farming, have a look at the habitat improvement projects undertaken by Ullswater CIC or volunteer some of your time with the gorgeous Lowther Castle and Gardens or with the National Trust and their vital nature conservation projects.

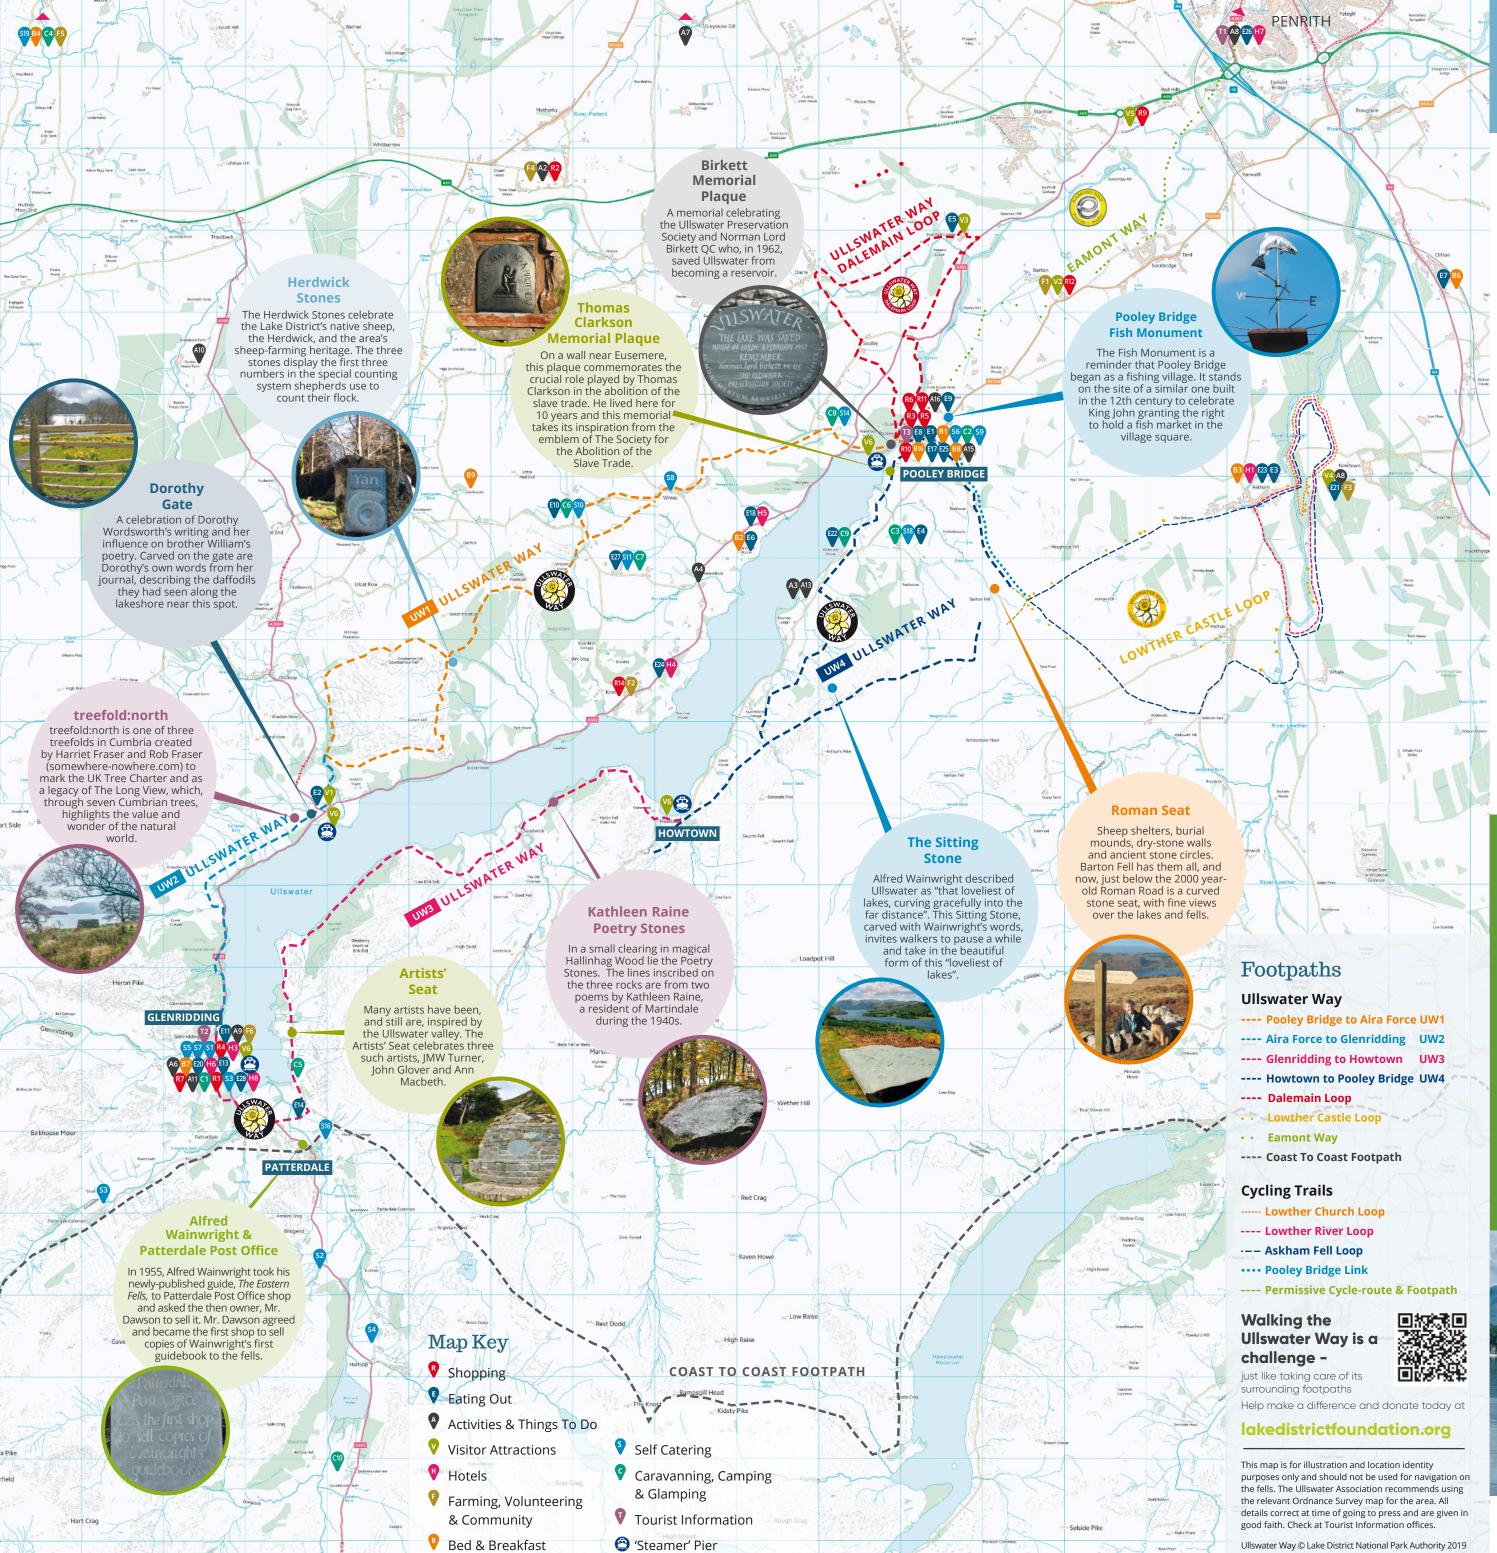

Discover local produce - from Fabi's Fabulous Milk

Expand your horizons and local knowledge with a Friends of the Ullswater Way talk held monthly in local community venues around the valley.

Walk the Ullswater Way

The Ullswater Way is a stunning 20 mile walking route around Ullswater.

The route can be walked in either direction and from any starting point. Why not walk the route in shorter sections, using an open top bus or "Steamer" to start your journey!

The Eamont Way

The Eamont Way is a joint initiative of Friends of the Ullswater Way and Sustainable and Integrated Transport for Ullswater. It's a continuous, signposted walking route between Penrith and Pooley Bridge that benefits residents and visitors alike.

It was made possible with the help of local landowners who provided permissive sections

The Ullswater Way Heritage Trail

The Ullswater Way Heritage Trail celebrates the history and heritage of the valley via a series of environmentally-sensitive artistic installations and information points along the route.

Enjoy Car Free Sustainable Travel around Ullswater...

Stagecoach bus routes including the seasonal Ullswater Hopper, Ullswater 'Steamers', Arragons cycle hire and Ullswater eBikes provide an alternative way to travel around Ullswater with piers and bus stops linking Penrith, Pooley Bridge, Aira Force and Glenridding villages. Plus, there are many miles of footpaths, bridleways and cycle routes in the valley so visitors can enjoy car free days out and Ullswater itself is of course the main attraction. Surrounded by gently rolling countryside at the northern end around Pooley Bridge, a trip south down the lakeshore gives way to sheer fellsides that drop away into the water below, culminating in the majesty of England's favourite mountain, Helvellyn.

Forget bright lights and tourist hot spots,

the Ullswater valley is a haven of peace and

and those looking to escape the daily grind.

tranquillity - a must for walkers, water-lovers

Whether your visit is an annual holiday, a short break or just an escape for the day, Ullswater has a surprisingly diverse range of activities, places to stay, visit, eat and shop – many of which can be found in this leaflet. However for more comprehensive information on our beautiful area, visit ullswater.org
